Joel Fox is Editor of Fox & Hounds Daily.com and President of the Small Business Action Committee. The Fox and Hounds web site is delivered free, daily to subscribers, business people, opinion leaders, elected officials and journalists. It carries commentaries from Fox and others on public policy, political and business issues. Fox's commentaries have been published on the opinion pages of all of California's major newspapers as well as national papers including the Wall Street Journal, Washington Post and USA Today. Fox worked at the Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association for 19 years, serving as the association's president from 1986 through 1998. He has consulted on a number of statewide and local ballot measure campaigns over his 35-plus years in California public affairs and politics and served as a senior advisor to Richard Riordan and Arnold Schwarzenegger in their gubernatorial campaigns.

We look forward to hearing from Joel and thank him for his visit to V.V.

8:10pm Roslyn Wolin

Roslyn is the President San Fernando Valley Arts Council. The San Fernando Valley Arts Council was created by the Cultural Affairs Dept. of Los Angeles, 48 years ago. It was originally supposed to be the umbrella organization for all non profits in the Valley, and later became the official arts organization for the San Fernando Valley. The Mission of the Arts Council is to support and promote the appreciation and growth of culture and the arts. It's goal is to promote cultural interaction and networking of business, religious, cultural, educational, and service groups with elected leaders and public officials. It's goals are to provide technical assistance to augment development and growth of artists and performing groups. Also to promote cultural interaction and networking of business, religious, cultural, educational, and service groups with elected leaders and public officials.

The SFV Arts Council has been a 501c3, nonprofit corporation, since 1973 and has provided programs and services for youth, seniors, and the disabled since 1969. It is currently a volunteer organization with no paid staff and no funding. Roslyn has been involved in numerous non profit organizations including Area Director of the League of Women Voters- San Fernando Valley, Past Program Vice President-American Association of University Women, and the Treasurer Ventura Co. Interfaith Community to name a few of her positions.

She has a B.S. degree in Art from Skidmore College, Saratoga Springs, N.Y. and a M.A. Degree in Psychology from Antioch University in L.A.

We are pleased Roslyn is taking time out of her busy schedule to be with us this evening.

Adjourn 8:40pm

The press and public are invited to attend the meeting.

The next meeting of Valley VOTE will be on March 16 ,2015 at Galpin.

Valley VOTE Mission Statement

Valley VOTE is a diverse coalition of San Fernando Valley residents, business people, educators, community activists, and organizations, committed to exploring and fostering the implementation of programs that empower the people of the San Fernando Valley and the City of Los Angeles, to improve local governance, education and public participation on policy matters. We meet monthly to address key policy issues and hear reports from our standing committee chairs. For additional information about Valley VOTE, for an upcoming meeting agenda, or for previous meeting reports and press releases, we encourage you to go to the Valley VOTE website: www.ValleyVote.org
