7:30pm Serge Haddad - LADWP

Serge Haddad, P.E. is the Manager of the Water Recycling Policy at the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power. For over 10 years with the City, his experience has included structural design, project management, construction, City Council liaison, and water recycling. He currently manages the City's regulatory, legislative, policy, and public engagement aspects of the recycled water program. Mr. Haddad is a graduate from Loyola Marymount University and University of Southern California and a registered Civil Engineer in California. We are pleased that Mr. Haddad is able to meet with us this evening to clarify the many positive quality issues of L.A.'s water including the so called misunderstanding by some of the public of the "Toilet to Tap" expression. We thank Serge for accepting our invitation to bring us up to date on this important subject.

8:15pm

Wayne Williams - Clean Money

Wayne Williams is a long time Board member of the California Clean Money Campaign. He is the Secretary- Treasurer of the California Clean Money Action Fund. This is a non-profit, non-partisan 501(c)(4) organization that is the political advocacy arm of the 501(c)(3) California Clean Money Campaign. The California Clean Money Action Fund has been fighting for legislation and ballot measures to limit the undue influence of Big Money in California politics since 2006. All its support comes from individuals and non-profit foundations, with no funding from corporations or unions. For more information about the California DISCLOSE Act, visit www.CAdisclose.org.

Wayne will provide an update of the current activities of California Clean Money Campaign. We would like to thank Wayne for taking time out of his busy schedule to be with us this evening,
